Our New Brand

You may have noticed recently that we have updated our brand, including a new logo and website! The evolved ICCU brand is designed to reflect our true culture — dependable, helpful, welcoming, down-to-earth — and our interconnectedness with those we serve.

In surveys conducted last year, members reported what they like best about ICCU is our local, hometown feel combined with professional and friendly service. Sandra R., a member since 1971, said, “We have always appreciated the interest rates that are offered, the friendly staff and the willingness to help.” Anthony C., a member since 2012, echoed that sentiment, saying, “[What I like best is the] personalized service and financial solutions that you don’t get at a big traditional bank.”

From these sentiments came our new tagline: Service • Support • Solutions. And that’s really what we’re here for: To provide professional service, personal support and individual solutions to you, our members, and our communities as a whole.
